

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Forgetful.

Professor (about to start on his wedding trip to his parents farwell, then to his young wife)—Goodby dear—goodby.

"What, y u are saying goodby to me too?"

"Why, that's so, you are going with me!"—Buch fur Alle.

A New Want.

No. One—There, I have written the ad. Shall I read it?
No. Two—Cert.
No. One—Wanted—Two valettes for bachelor girls. Must know how to curl hair and ride a bicycle.—Brooklyn Life.

"Taking the Necessary Steps."

—Pick Me Up.

Green—Yes, I think it's getting on very well. Who has been sitting to you for your Apollo?

Brown—"Well, I couldn't get a man to suit me, and, as a matter of fact, it has been done mostly from myself in the glass.

Green—"But, my boy, why didn't you let me know? I'd have sat for you with pleasure."—St. James Budget.

Visiting a Place of Interest.

MONEY LOANED

—Truth.

Not an Unmixed Evil.

"So you think I am drinking too much?"

"No, but I think you will kill yourself if you keep on."—Life.

Sour Milk for Pigs.

The feeders of swine were somewhat surprised at the announcement made a few years since by the Vermont experiment station of the high feeding value of sour milk when compared with sweet milk. The Ontario experiment experiment would indicate that sweet milk is equal to or better than sour milk for pigs weighing from 140 to 300 pounds, as an economical producer of gain."

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Deadly Trifle.
(St. Louis Globe-Democrat.)

The fact that no one has the slightest intimation of the time and manner

ALL FEMALE DISEASES
Quick and permanent cures guaranteed.
New treatment for FILLS and ULCERS.
Pain, Fever and CHOLERA.
BLINDNESS, STOMACH and BLADDER,
URINARY DISEASES, BLOOD POISON,
WEAKNESS OR EXHAUSTION following any of the above. VENICE and ST. PETERSBURG.
Cures ALL FEMALE DISEASES.
STOMACH AND NEURALGIA.
Scientific treatment.

anxiety, it is a very questionable whether anybody in fairly good health is much disturbed by the reflection that sooner or later he will have to die, for such is the philosophical tendency of even unphilosophical folk that, while accepting the inevitable and conceding that death is certain to come, they yet put it far from themselves as a thing with which they have no present concern. It eat, lest the kind and quantity of food should disagree with them; to sleep, lest they should never awake. Every act of life, however simple, would become a cause of terror; every phenomenon of nature would become a source of uneasiness, men would live in a state of panic infinitely more than that which afflicts the poor of our day. But the hand of nature kindly draws a veil over our future, and men are not forced to consider, to understand though they were cursed with earthly immortality.

"Going into a decline." How often do we hear this expression. What does it mean? It means that people are losing flesh, growing thin, wasting.

The way to correct this condition is to improve the digestion. The condition arises from an inability to eat and

A California chemist has robbed Castor Oil of the bad taste. Laxol is its name.

The Christmas Number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.

The Christmas number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly is already out, and will hardly be surpassed in richness and beauty of pictorial illustration.

BEST REMEDY FOR PILES
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.
Prepared by WATKINSON MED. CO., ST. LOUIS, MO.

R-IP-AN-S
—
The modern stand

Thousands of Women
SUFFER UNTOLD MISERIES,
BRADFIELD'S
CATHARTIC

the physicians three years without benefit. After using three bottles of BRADFIELDS' BRAIN AND NERVE TONIC she was able to do her own cooking, milking and washing."

N. S. BRYAN, Henderson, Ala.
BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.
Sold by druggists at $1.00 per bottle.

CHARGE. Over 100,000,000 Patents Secured.
A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
OFF. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

CONFESSEES ARE NOT necessarily confessorial, but they are often guilty of passing worthless bills.

The Fifty-fourth Congress will assemble in Washington next Monday. There will be no distinguished leaders on either side of the House.

Will anybody please play a porous plaster or some other adhesive substance over the mouth of the man who is still trying to tell what caused the landslide?

ALL over the State notices of contest are being filed by Republicans who were candidates at the late election and were beaten. If they don't say the Republicans want and don't need, they will please ask for it.

We have just put a point on our new pencil to chronicle the fact that the puns on the Thanksgiving turkey must now stop, and we have failed to find anything new to say on the subject.

The Seventh Day Adventists regard the present Turkish troubles as the forerunning of the end of the world and are exhorting the people to prepare for the last great battle of the centuries—the Battle of Armageddon.

It is announced that Senator David B. Hill will begin taking lessons in the art of lecturing. It is also announced that he will soon be married. Perhaps he could learn a few pointers by waiting while before beginning the former task.

The Madisonville Hotel office is provided with a horse's nest, forty-four inches in diameter and full of horse. When one of the town boys comes into the office to chat, Editor Glenn just walks over to the corner of the room, lifts the cover of the nest and goes out for awhile.

CHARLES A. BLATZ has been nominated for the Legislature by the Republicans of Louisville, against Hon. A. J. Carroll, who resigned and is again a candidate in the same place. Mr. Blatz is a new man in politics, but comes via the Republican machine headquarters in Louisville.

That cold wave which was booked for this section the latter part of last week and which caused us no end of trouble in corking the sleeping quarters, did not arrive as predicted. But it didn't take the weather to furnish a nice little game of freeze-out in Kentucky—in political times.

SEVERAL big Louisville printing houses, including the Courier Journal, Commercial Post, etc., are engaged in a scrap over the letting of a contract to do the city hall advertising of Louisville. The recent trend of the fair play fall will likely cause the firm to fall into Republican hands.

H. J. POOR, the Populist editor of the Legislature from Pendleton county, announces that he will affiliate with the Republicans in the election of a United States Senator. He says he is proud to be the Republican supporter before the election. In doing this he will have to cross the silver line and prove a traitor to his party, and it looks to us like this is a Poor way of doing.

SOMEbody's dimwitted rooster that has been strutting around the editor's premises and roosting in the woodshed for several months past had as well prepare to die. The occasion calls for a turkey, but the circumstances demand the rooster. If the shades of night find him in his accustomed quarters, he will be troubled more by the wintry winds blowing through his whiskers.

In paroling out the pie in Kentucky, Republican politicians will find themselves in rather a strained position. In many instances they will hardly be equal to the task. In the mad rush for office, many promises were made that the promoters will find hard to fulfill. Just now a horde of hungry pie-hunters are on the rampage with well preserved pledges in their pockets, and the life of the Republican politician official is not the abode of perfect peace and harmony.

Ten game of football of today is not foot-ball in fact, it hardly has enough of real kicking in it to preserve the name. It is a game where fat and skull and shin and ribs take the place of the pigskin. It is barbaric, inhuman and brutal. It is encased in splendid physical endurance need hope to take part. The champion of the gridiron must perform a pugilist of no small ability. There is nothing beautiful or exhilarating about the game except perhaps the good luck some men have of coming out of the contest unscathed. It is devoid of refinement and good feeling that should characterize a college or young man's game. It has degenerated into a contest where superior readiness is the only way to win. It should be suppressed.

THANKSGIVING.

To-morrow is the day on which we are wont to give thanks to a merciful Providence for the blessings received during the past year. To those who know how to keep thanksgiving without turkey, perhaps this day will come with a true conception of the spirit that should thrill the hearts of all humble believers on Him. Not the most genuine thanks will go up from palatial banquets set for the affluent and the distressed, whose days are not such as those whose lives are barren of the happiness of property, will bow in gracious acknowledgment of extended blessings. These poor, uncomplaining souls who find it meet to praise Him for his constant care and his loving gifts will perhaps enjoy most the returns of this day. Oh, the faith that can give thanks in prison, on bed of affliction, in times when the sunshine of life seems hidden behind dense clouds. It is such thanks as this that the good Book ascribes to us give.

It is a realization that God never forgets His own but is ever mindful of the needs of his creatures that brings us nearer to Him and nearer to each other in the observance of the day. Let us trample down the weeds of discontent, the briars of anxiety as to our own personal welfare that fail us and let us rather be thankful for what we have and for the blessings that are ours, and meet together for an enjoyment of the amenities of the hour. Doubting nothing and hoping for all good by the hand that has never failed in gracious gift, we will be prepared for what the future has in store for us. Forgetting our own discomfort, if such there be, let us strive to make each other happy. Across the tide of years comes the thought that has sweet to our ears and should be sweet to ours: "In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God."

That the election is over and we now have another one for nearly a year yet.

That Hartford has a splendid corps of physicians.

That an epidemic of sickness has not struck our city.

That we are not in Turkey being tortured by the Turks.

That a few of THE HERALD subscribers are paying up.

That we are so near a new fence around the court house.

That the religious influence in Hartford is being stirred up.

That this was the best crop season we have had in many years.

That the street cleaning in Hartford are not quite out of sight.

That the ones who say "I told you so" are not as numerous this year as usual.

That the election is over and we now have another one for nearly a year yet.

That Hartford has a splendid corps of physicians.

That an epidemic of sickness has not struck our city.

That we are not in Turkey being tortured by the Turks.

That a few of THE HERALD subscribers are paying up.

That we are so near a new fence around the court house.

That the religious influence in Hartford is being stirred up.

That this was the best crop season we have had in many years.

That the street cleaning in Hartford are not quite out of sight.

That the ones who say "I told you so" are not as numerous this year as usual.

That the election is over and we now have another one for nearly a year yet.

You find them everywhere—in workshop, in fields, in offices, in mines. They are graduates of the aforementioned apprenticeship, which taught them only that the world was a vast and empty place, and that with blithful brain and unskillful hands to get it. Go into their homes and a reflection of their aim in life meets you at every turn.

Experts in the line of business are never a drug in the market. In the trades and professions these men enjoy the greatest distinction and command the highest pay. Whatever you do, strive to do it well—better if possible, than the best execution of it you have ever seen. Don't be careless in anything; always do your best. Watch opportunities and improve upon them; be ambitious. Above everything else, be honest. Your chances are sure, your reward is certain. And rest assured that whatever your position in life, no matter how obscure and humble, the world will find you out and reward you for it. You will pay from its scenes of action with a name which will be the symbol of honor and integrity.

WHAT WE SHOULD BE THANKFUL FOR.

That we are still living.

That Hartford is soon to have a new street cleaning.

That Bradley's majority wasn't any larger.

That Hartford has a splendid corps of physicians.

That an epidemic of sickness has not struck our city.

That we are not in Turkey being tortured by the Turks.

That a few of THE HERALD subscribers are paying up.

That we are so near a new fence around the court house.

That the religious influence in Hartford is being stirred up.

That this was the best crop season we have had in many years.

That the street cleaning in Hartford are not quite out of sight.

That the ones who say "I told you so" are not as numerous this year as usual.

That the election is over and we now have another one for nearly a year yet.

That Hartford has a splendid corps of physicians.

That an epidemic of sickness has not struck our city.

That we are not in Turkey being tortured by the Turks.

That a few of THE HERALD subscribers are paying up.

That we are so near a new fence around the court house.

That the religious influence in Hartford is being stirred up.

That this was the best crop season we have had in many years.

That the street cleaning in Hartford are not quite out of sight.

That the ones who say "I told you so" are not as numerous this year as usual.

That the election is over and we now have another one for nearly a year yet.

That Hartford has a splendid corps of physicians.

That an epidemic of sickness has not struck our city.

That we are not in Turkey being tortured by the Turks.

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES.

A Michigan man is so fat that he can't fall down though he has been down so long. Why shouldn't he move down to Kentucky, and then he can't get up to the Democratic State ticket.

THE PART OF THE TIPSER.

There was a time in this country that a man who could furnish the most accurate and reliable information was to be seen in a saloon near, in prime place evidence that you are unfit for office or any other position.

TO the average citizen or to the average newspaper there is perhaps as little pay in politics as there is in any other industry in the world. As a general thing the fellow who is ready to take his shirt off at election, is the same fellow who does not tear his shirt when it comes to read, hard work on the farm or in the shop.

THEY WILL BE HELD TO IT.

Now that the Republican party has succeeded in capturing the State administration the people will demand that the promises of reform (?) shall be fully realized. They have and have too, though these must be reduced and they have said there are too many offices. The answer must be to reduce them. They have said the books have been corrupted. These must be revealed and the books must be changed. All in all the Republicans have assumed a big responsibility in this State, and they should be held to it.

A FERTILITY QUESTION.

When Mr. J. H. Hensley, proprietor of the Walton House, Hartford, and a native of Switzerland by birth, went to vote he was challenged by the Republicans, claiming that he had been legally voting in this country for fifteen years. This irritated him, so he is now to have a new fence around the court house.

That the religious influence in Hartford is being stirred up.

That this was the best crop season we have had in many years.

That the street cleaning in Hartford are not quite out of sight.

That the ones who say "I told you so" are not as numerous this year as usual.

That the election is over and we now have another one for nearly a year yet.

That Hartford has a splendid corps of physicians.

That an epidemic of sickness has not struck our city.

That we are not in Turkey being tortured by the Turks.

That a few of THE HERALD subscribers are paying up.

That we are so near a new fence around the court house.

That the religious influence in Hartford is being stirred up.

That this was the best crop season we have had in many years.

That the street cleaning in Hartford are not quite out of sight.

That the ones who say "I told you so" are not as numerous this year as usual.

That the election is over and we now have another one for nearly a year yet.

That Hartford has a splendid corps of physicians.

That an epidemic of sickness has not struck our city.

That we are not in Turkey being tortured by the Turks.

That a few of THE HERALD subscribers are paying up.

That we are so near a new fence around the court house.

elent number of the Democratic members of the House who were fairly elected, are unseated and their places given to Republicans. The House is defeated, to secure a safe majority on joint ballot. That is what the contest was all about. Why shouldn't he move down to Kentucky, and then he can't get up to the Democratic State ticket. It ought to make votes for Carroll.

Political Analysis.

It is a singular fact that the Monroe doctrine of British origin. In 1823 George Canning, British foreign secretary, stated, suggested that the United States Government should take decided ground against interference by the "holy alliance" in Mexico and South America, where the Spanish colonies had established their independence.

The "holy alliance" was a union of Austria, France, Prussia and Russia for the maintenance of the European monarchies. It was formed soon after the Napoleonic wars and was renewed and strengthened in 1830, when springing occurred in several countries of Europe. Great Britain had been a member of the combination, and some steps had been taken in that direction under Lord Canning, but his death prevented any action being taken for foreign minister, and under his guidance Great Britain held aloof from the continental alliance.

It was not until the recognition of the independence of Mexico and the other American republics at London in 1845, was inclined to pursue the same course. In 1848 he suggested to Richard Schuyler, American secretary of state, that this government should express in a declaration of policy its opposition to the intervention by the European powers in behalf of Spain against its colonies which had been the intention of Pausy Klembe, the Austrian ambassador in London.

This suggestion was conveyed to President Monroe through John Quincy Adams, the American secretary of state. President Monroe submitted the proposition to the cabinet and the cabinet decided in favor of the policy on the subject. Jefferson was more prompt and decided in his action than Adams and Canning had suggested. He said it was the most momentous question submitted for his opinion since the declaration of independence. The decision was given in favor of the United States, and the importance of the question.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

MONROE DOCTRINE.

FACTS CONCERNING ITS ORIGIN AND WHAT IT SIGNIFIES.

First Submitted by an English Statesman. Subsequently to Jefferson and Adams. Who Approved It—Never Recreated Congress—"Lionel and Graham."

It is a singular fact that the Monroe doctrine of British origin. In 1823 George Canning, British foreign secretary, stated, suggested that the United States Government should take decided ground against interference by the "holy alliance" in Mexico and South America, where the Spanish colonies had established their independence.

The "holy alliance" was a union of Austria, France, Prussia and Russia for the maintenance of the European monarchies. It was formed soon after the Napoleonic wars and was renewed and strengthened in 1830, when springing occurred in several countries of Europe. Great Britain had been a member of the combination, and some steps had been taken in that direction under Lord Canning, but his death prevented any action being taken for foreign minister, and under his guidance Great Britain held aloof from the continental alliance.

It was not until the recognition of the independence of Mexico and the other American republics at London in 1845, was inclined to pursue the same course. In 1848 he suggested to Richard Schuyler, American secretary of state, that this government should express in a declaration of policy its opposition to the intervention by the European powers in behalf of Spain against its colonies which had been the intention of Pausy Klembe, the Austrian ambassador in London.

This suggestion was conveyed to President Monroe through John Quincy Adams, the American secretary of state. President Monroe submitted the proposition to the cabinet and the cabinet decided in favor of the policy on the subject. Jefferson was more prompt and decided in his action than Adams and Canning had suggested. He said it was the most momentous question submitted for his opinion since the declaration of independence. The decision was given in favor of the United States, and the importance of the question.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

Under these circumstances President Monroe's good time came in 1823, expressed the doctrine that the United States would oppose any European interference in the Americas. This was the first time that the United States had taken a decided position in regard to European interference in the Americas.

In the discussions to which it was subjected, the doctrine was generally approved, and the United States was committed to the policy. The doctrine was not without its opponents, but it was generally accepted, and it has since been the basis of American foreign policy.

relief of Ireland, then afflicted by famine. Our sympathy for him and his country was expressed in earnest and glowing terms.

After speaking five minutes the speaker, according to instructions, turned to the speaker's right and having been accented that Mr. Russell should take care not to interrupt the speaker, he proceeded to read the following resolution: "Resolved, that the United States Government should take decided ground against interference by the 'holy alliance' in Mexico and South America, where the Spanish colonies had established their independence."

The "holy alliance" was a union of Austria, France, Prussia and Russia for the maintenance of the European monarchies. It was formed soon after the Napoleonic wars and was renewed and strengthened in 1830, when springing occurred in several countries of Europe. Great Britain had been a member of the combination, and some steps had been taken in that direction under Lord Canning, but his death prevented any action being taken for foreign minister, and under his guidance Great Britain held aloof from the continental alliance.

It was not until the recognition of the independence of Mexico and the other American republics at London in 1845, was inclined to pursue the same course. In 1848 he suggested to Richard Schuyler, American secretary of state, that this government should express in a declaration of policy its opposition to the intervention by the European powers in behalf of Spain against its colonies which had been the intention of Pausy Klembe, the Austrian ambassador in London.

Madisonville at 4:44 a. m., having made the trip of 48 miles in 36 minutes.

When the train drew to a standstill, the fire engine was steaming hot and ready to throw water, but the fire had been under control for some time, and there was no necessity of unloading the engine and locomotive.

Hundreds of inhabitants were at the station when the train arrived and welcomed the Evansville friends with hearty cheers, and entertained them for two hours with an impromptu banquet. The firemen arrived about 9 a. m.

Notices to Creditors.
OCTOBER CIRCUIT COURT.
Willis Rowe, Adm'r
vs.
Anastasia Rowe, &c.
All persons having claims against the estate of Ed G. Rowe, deceased, are hereby notified to present same properly verified to me at my office in Hartford, Ky., on or before the first day of January, 1890, or they will be barred. Witness my hand this 27th day of Nov. 1889. B. D. RIXHO, M. C. O. C. C.

A new comet has recently been seen in the sky. Another new comet has appeared in the medical horizon of this section; it is known as Ransom's Tonic Liver Pills, and it is the greatest remedy ever discovered to effectually cure all forms of biliousness, disordered liver, impoverished digestion, sour stomach, dyspepsia, &c. For 25 cents you receive a box of this medicine, which includes some tiny Pills for "toning up" the appetite. Ask your druggist, should it. Sample dose free.

Born, to the wife of Wm. Williams, on Echols, on the 14th inst., twins. The little boy died Saturday, the wife and surviving child are doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Ella D. Boone, who has been the guest of her brother, W. G. Dupan and family, of Louisville, returned home Saturday.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla is carefully prepared by experienced pharmacists from Sassafras, Danthion, Menstrana, Dock, Figwinn, Juniper, Berries, and other well known vegetable remedies. This Combination, Proton and Process are peculiar to Hood's Sarsaparilla, giving it strength and curative power Peculiar to itself, not possessed by other medicines. Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures Scrofula, Skin Rheum, Rashes, Boils, Pimples and all other affections caused by Impure Blood; Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Headache, Indigestion, Debility, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Complaints. It is Not What we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla Does, that Tells the Story—

PILLS
Hood's Pills are gentle, mild and effective

CHAS. L. FIELD. R. HOLBROOK

FIELD & HOLBROOK PROPRIETORS

LIVER STABLE
Hartford, Kentucky.

Dealers in Horses, Buggies, Carriages, Surries, Carts, Spring Wagons, Road Wagons, Gale Harrow Supplies, Etc.

Saddle and Harness Horses for Sale or Hire at All Times. Special Attention Given All Orders Placed by Traveling Salesmen.

The Best of Rigs on Short Notice

DAILY 'BUS MEETS
A Beaver Dam Trains

FOR
Prompt Service at Reasonable Rates
GIVE THEM A CALL.

PERSONAL GOSSIP

John Roberts has been the champion of English billiards for over 30 years.

It is said that Dr. John Hall, the Presbyterian minister of New York, is the wealthiest clergyman in the world.

The Dr. military order known by General Grant, late quartermaster of the Twenty-third Illinois.

Conceal of the Castello, the Spanish prisoner, is 40 years old, an enterprising journalist when he became of age and politics three years later.

Senator George of Iowa, who is 90 years old, has just undergone a successful operation for the removal of a cancer from one of his eyes.

Joseph Neblitt, once a mining king worth $1,000,000, died the other day in a Chicago lodging house.

William A. Coffa, a well known Chicago painter and art collector, has been appointed one of the judges in the Fine Arts department of the Atlanta exposition.

Stephen Hop of Lynnhaven, Va., has in his possession a collection of old coins, among them being an English guinea of 1795 and a shilling of 1835, also a crown of 1795.

The interests of the Rothchilds are represented in the goldfields of Johannesburg, South Africa, by Harry Gold, a Kentschian. He receives an annual salary of $40,000.

A. B. Clingman of Cornwall, Or., died the other day at the age of 98. At his funeral was a son, 71, another 68, a daughter 48 and a great number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Grandchild Spencer is described as a thin, old fashioned Englishman, a stout, dumpy, middle-aged man, a large head (now bald), a high forehead, a large nose and a very small mouth.

It is interesting to learn that John Armstrong Chamber had four times to America before he was consigned to become his wife. He was the first time at a Newport ball and followed generally in love on the spot.

He is now in the Chinese consular in New York, who has around the antiques of his fellow countrymen, a tremendous collection. He is of lofty lineage and great wealth and is highly and ungrudgingly. His wife is a charming little woman.

When Sir Walter Scott's grandson, Mr. Walter Scott, was born, his father telegraphed her congratulations to the infant's mother and closed the dispatch with the words, "He shall be knighted Sir Walter when he is 21."

Young Scott is not a knight, but he is the fulfillment of the queen's promise.

STAGE GLINTS

A. W. Gattie, author of "The Transgression," has written a new play for the Alhambra.

Richard Barker will go to London shortly to secure Gilbert & Sullivan's new opera for Francis Wilson.

Flora Everett has been specially engaged by Vaguet & Kemper for touring business with the new opera.

Madeline Lucette Ryley is busy on a new play. Several roles have resulted from "Christopher, Jr."

Harry Bagge is considering an offer to become leading man of a new stock company to be organized in New York.

Lillian Burkhardt Dickson has been engaged by Steiner & Hall for Marie Janney's company in "The Merry Countess."

Louis Mann, the strength of "The Merry Widow," and Clara "The Merry Widow" has been engaged to play the leading girl of "Innocence," were recently married.

Leo Dietrichstein has been engaged for "A Star Player," and George K. Porten has also been secured to play the leading role in the same piece.

John Hare has changed his mind again and has definitely concluded to open his coming American tour in "The Plumber" at the National Theatre.

Alma Kanner says: "The American dramatist is to have his day at last. From numbers of managers I receive requests to supply a play for the stage of the legitimate theatres on the stage whose members are original, will venture as a star in the new, and can't succeed," "Crazy Patch."

NOVELTIES

New tea sets are in colonial and Queen Anne designs, and with bright finish.

Special attention is given this season to color effects, not only in jewelry, but silver articles.

Miniature brooches, in artistic mountings, are prominent and are in demand with the fall of the day.

A conspicuous feature in the new silver goods is the decorative effect gained with gilding and enamel.

Scientific Rheumatism

For real blood disease relief can only be obtained by using a real blood remedy.

To many people who are suffering from an obstinate or deep-seated blood disease, the mistake of taking remedies which at best are only tonics, and cannot possibly reach their trouble.

It is in such cases that other so-called blood remedies cause much trouble. S.S.S. has made some of the most wonderful cures of rheumatism in the most obstinate cases of the blood.

Mr. Asa Smith, who resides with Green, Green, Indiana, where he is well known, writes:

"Many years I have suffered from that terrible disease known as Sciatic Rheumatism, which has prevented me from working, and I have failed to relieve. I have also used nearly every known blood remedy, but have not been cured, so good, as they did not seem to reach my case at all. Finally, I tried S.S.S. and the extent of my suffering was relieved."

"The Rheumatism has cured me of every other trouble, and I am now a happy man, and I am able to do my work. I heartily recommend it."

Ministers of the Gospel Indorse ELECTROPOISE

Rev. John I. Rodgers, Danville, Ky., writes: "I have used the Electropoise for five years, and it has been a great relief to me. Especially in the case of feeble women and delicate children."

Rev. Robert Barrett, Louisville, Ky., writes: "I have used the Electropoise for five years, and it has been a great relief to me. Especially in the case of feeble women and delicate children."

MR. ASA SMITH, of Louisville, Ky., writes: "I have used the Electropoise for five years, and it has been a great relief to me. Especially in the case of feeble women and delicate children."

OLD TOM boys went out with old Tom boys, and the fragments of the gun, but old Tom always left it that other shot in instance of falling lock or skill it was time for the old Tom boys to go.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

Doctors Say: Bilious and Intermittent Fevers which prevail in miasmatic districts are invariably accompanied by derangements of the Stomach and Bowels.

The liver is the great "driving wheel" in the mechanism of the body, and when it is out of order, the whole system becomes deranged and disease is the result.

Tutt's Liver Pills Cure all Liver Troubles.

REV. W. F. VAUGHN, HARPER'S MAGAZINE

Harvard, Ky., Presiding Elder of the Danville District Methodist Church, writes:

"The Rheumatism has cured me of every other trouble, and I am now a happy man, and I am able to do my work. I heartily recommend it."

Ministers of the Gospel Indorse ELECTROPOISE

Rev. John I. Rodgers, Danville, Ky., writes: "I have used the Electropoise for five years, and it has been a great relief to me. Especially in the case of feeble women and delicate children."

Rev. Robert Barrett, Louisville, Ky., writes: "I have used the Electropoise for five years, and it has been a great relief to me. Especially in the case of feeble women and delicate children."

MR. ASA SMITH, of Louisville, Ky., writes: "I have used the Electropoise for five years, and it has been a great relief to me. Especially in the case of feeble women and delicate children."

OLD TOM boys went out with old Tom boys, and the fragments of the gun, but old Tom always left it that other shot in instance of falling lock or skill it was time for the old Tom boys to go.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

Doctors Say: Bilious and Intermittent Fevers which prevail in miasmatic districts are invariably accompanied by derangements of the Stomach and Bowels.

The liver is the great "driving wheel" in the mechanism of the body, and when it is out of order, the whole system becomes deranged and disease is the result.

Tutt's Liver Pills Cure all Liver Troubles.

REV. W. F. VAUGHN, HARPER'S MAGAZINE

Harvard, Ky., Presiding Elder of the Danville District Methodist Church, writes:

"The Rheumatism has cured me of every other trouble, and I am now a happy man, and I am able to do my work. I heartily recommend it."

Ministers of the Gospel Indorse ELECTROPOISE

Rev. John I. Rodgers, Danville, Ky., writes: "I have used the Electropoise for five years, and it has been a great relief to me. Especially in the case of feeble women and delicate children."

Rev. Robert Barrett, Louisville, Ky., writes: "I have used the Electropoise for five years, and it has been a great relief to me. Especially in the case of feeble women and delicate children."

MR. ASA SMITH, of Louisville, Ky., writes: "I have used the Electropoise for five years, and it has been a great relief to me. Especially in the case of feeble women and delicate children."

OLD TOM boys went out with old Tom boys, and the fragments of the gun, but old Tom always left it that other shot in instance of falling lock or skill it was time for the old Tom boys to go.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

ARMED KING (Glasgow Times). Not a single pack-rat established himself in the city of Louisville this season. Arm and Co., the big Chicago packing firm, appear to have been the only one to succeed in this line.

GENERAL DIRECTORY.

GOVERNOR: JOHN YONGE. SECRETARY: JOHN YONGE. ATTORNEY GENERAL: JOHN YONGE. JUDGE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE COUNTY COURT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE JUDICIAL DISTRICT: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PROBATE COURT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE CHANCERY COURT: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE EQUITABLE COURT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE COMMONS COURT: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS: JOHN YONGE.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENT: JOHN YONGE. CLERK OF THE SENATE: JOHN YONGE.

CLAIRETTE SOAP

Comes soon to all who employ the helpful services of

CLAIRETTE SOAP

Does the work quicker, does it better, lasts longer. Begin its use at once. Sold everywhere. Made only by

The N. K. Fairbank Company, St. Louis.

Bryant & Stratton Business College.

SHORTHAND TELEGRAPHY INSTITUTE.

$1.00 FOR YOUR PHOTOGRAPH.

Write in a letter covering these three points: First—State how long you have known, or used, or sold "Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine."

Second—State diseases you have known it to cure and give the names of those cured.

Third—Give your opinion as to the difference between its strength and effect and those of any other medicine you have known since 1860.

On receipt of your letter enclosing photograph, we will mail you free of charge, a 25 cent package of Liver Medicine, or on receipt of letter without photograph, we will mail you a 25 cent package.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.

See the ailments, caused by indigestion of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, which Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine has invariably cured since 1860.